MILK MEN ENTER STRONG PROTEST

TO GOV. DUNNE AGAINST ISSU-ANCE OF PROCLAMATION AF-FECTING CATTLE.

SHIPPED CATTLE MUST QUALIFY

As to Tuberculin Test—Claim Injury to Milk Industry.
Injury to the Milk
Business.

Springfield, Oct. 31—Special to Telegraph—A delegation consisting of Elmer Fellows of St. Charles, president of the Illinois Milk Producers' association; Charles L. Potter, president of the Elgin Board of Trade; Representative Chas. Foline
of Aurora and R. S. Egan of Elgin, representing the milk industry of the state, appeared before Gov. Dunne today to protest against the issuance of any proclamation by the governor demanding that a certificate of good health shall accompany all cattle shipped into this state for dairy and breeding purposes. The Illinois State Livestock Commission
and the state veterinarian, Dr. O.
Enyson, have recommended to the governor that he issue a proclamation fixing a date after which no cattle shall be admitted into the state for dairy and breeding purposes unless having first undergone a tuberculin test and to which a certificate of good health has been issued.

The members of the delegation declared that the issuance of such a proclamation would work material injury to the milk business of Illinois. Gov. Dunne told the delegation that he would give them ten days
in which to file written briefs stating their reasons for protesting against the proposed proclamation.

SPEAKS WELL OF RURAL SCHOOLS

SUPT. MILLER RETURNS FROM A TRIP OF INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS.

County Superintendent L. W. Miller has returned from a trip of inspection which took him into many of the rural schools of the county, and he is enthusiastic in praise of school boards and teachers, whom he reports as being exceptionally willing and, in fact, anxious, to better the physical equipment of their schools.

Some Big Apples.

He also brought with him some enormous apples from the farm of Benjamin H. Pull, who lives south of Sublette, one of which measured over 17 inches in circumference, and others, some of which are over 13 inches in like measurement. Some of the apples he has given to the art teachers of the Dixon schools, to be used in their color classes.

Miss Virginia Bray, sister of Mrs.
Hugh Flannery of this city, who spent last summer here, is with the friends will doubtless turn out to see the play.

An important meeting of the Dixon Stars baseball association will be

COOK FUNERAL HELD TOMORROW

REMAINS WILL REST BESIDE
YOUNG SON JAMES, WHO DIED
SIX WEEKS AGO.

The funeral of Joseph Cook, who passed away at his home yesterday morning after an illness of several weeks' duration, during which typhoid fever and complications developed, will be held at the home, 310 Poplar street, at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning and at St. Patrick's Catholic church at 10 o'clock, Rev.
Father Foley officiating. The remains will be laid to rest beside those of his son, James, who died
six weeks ago, in Oakwood cemetery.
Joseph H. Cook was born in Dixon, March 19, 1881, and his home has always been in Dixon. Until his marriage to Miss Catherine McCrystal of this city, he resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook, of East Eighth street. For over seventeen years he was one of the valued employees of the Telegraph and his resignation from the force of this office to assume ownership of an express business, which change he made in hope of benefiting his health, was regretted by all connected with this paper. He was an ambitious, conscientious worker, a true friend and a kind husband and father, and his death is a deep loss to his faithful wife and surviving son Joseph, Jr.

In addition to the sorrowing widow and son, Mr. Cook is survived by his parents, a sister, Mrs. Emma Hanlon of this city, and one brother, Edward, of Chicago.

ALLEN TO SPEAK.

Invitations to the first banquet of the Men's club of the Y. M. C. A., to be held Nov. 6, are being issued to-expected the affair will be very largely attended. Mr. Allen's address will delineate the reforms he has been making at the prison, which are attracting state-wide attention.

The banquet will be served by the Ladies' Auxiliary, who are making special plans to have this spread one of the most toothsome they have ever prepared. A new plan will be adopted this year in connection with the banquets which will surely meet the approbation of the members. In years past members have been required to pay for each banquet, but the board of directors of the association have decided to serve the banquets free to all members of the club hereafter, and accordingly all whose acceptances are received by next Wednesday noon will be served free.

However, the careful property owner will take in everything that is

and take every possible precaution to get his property into such state that it can not be molested.

It has not been announced wheth-

MILLER RECEIVES INSTITUTE PROGRAMS

BOARDS REQUESTED TO GIVE TEACHERS OPPORTUNITY TO ATTEND ROCKFORD MEETING
WITHOUT LOSS OF TIME.

County Superintendent L. W. Miller has received a consignment of programs for the annual meeting of the Northern Illinois Teachers' Association, Western Section, which will be held at Rockford Nov. 6, 7 and 8, with a request that he urged every teacher in Lee county to attend the big gathering of pedagogues. Accordingly Mr. Miller will request that every school board in the county give their teachers an opportunity to attend the meeting without loss of time.

Mr. Miller has also been requested by the state officials to call attention to the rule making the receipt for the annual dues of $1 a prerequisite to attendance at this meeting. The state officers ask that all dues be paid the county superintendents prior to the convention, thereby expediting matters during the big gathering. The receipt given by the county superintendents may be exchanged for membership badges at Rockford.

W. T. HICKS INJURED.

W. T. Hicks, meat cutter at Coun-tryman's market, is suffering from the effects of a wound he inflicted suffer any permanent disability from it.

SATURDAY HOPE TO WIN A VIC-TORY—MANY ROOTERS

The Dixon high school football team will go to Rochelle tomorrow, and the boys and rooters realize that they are going up against the hardest proposition of the year in the fast Rochelle team, for that high school has always boasted a team that ranked well with Aurora, Rockford and other larger cities. However Coach Hogan has perfected the team work materially the past week and counts on them putting up an improved game over their work at Rockford a week ago, and many fans will accompany the players to assist them as much as possible.

MAIL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS EARLY

POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT IS-SUES WARNING AGAINST DELAY.

The postoffice department desires that widest publicity be given the advantage of mailing holiday parcels early in order to secure prompt dispatch, distribution and delivery of the greatest volume of holiday mail, attention being invited to the fact that it is permissible to place on parcels the words, "Do not open until Christmas," or words to that effect.

This is the first Christmas season
the parcel post system has been in operation and the department is desireous that the handling of the mails shall be expeditiously managed, with as little cause for criticism as possible, and the public given the benefit of quick and accurate transportation and delivery. The number of parcels to be handled will be great, hence
the necessity, beyond previous years,
of early mailing to prevent absolute congestion of the mail on Christmas week, with consequent loss and damage to parcels.

COMMISSIONERS WIN THEIR SUIT

JURY AWARDS DEFENDANTS
LESS THAN HAD BEEN OFFER-ED IN SETTLEMENT.

The Inlet Swamp drainage commissioners won a notable victory in their condemnation proceedings against Charles Wittenauer and Fred N. Vaughan, the verdict returned by the jury at 6 o'clock last evening awarding the defendants less than had been offered in settlement by the commissioners. The jury awarded Mr. Wittenauer damages in the sum of $1200 and $391.50 for the land condemned, while Mr. Vaughan's damages were fixed at $1,000, with $242 for the land used. The jury was discharged this morning.

FAITHFUL EMPLOYEE QUITS COMPANY

WYL HART, AGED 72, RESIGNS
FROM ROPER CONCERN AND GOES HOME.

FOLLOWED TRADE FOR 43 YEARS

Employed by Company 25 Years, His Wages Aggregating in That Time, $225,000.

After 26 years of continuous service with the Roper Furniture company, during which time he has been paid wages aggregating over $225,000, William Hart, aged 72, resigned from the service of the concern today; tomorrow morning he will go to South Bend, Ind., to spend the remainder of his days.

The old gentleman, a native of Germany, has followed the trade of cabinet maker in the United States for the past 43 years; when he began work in this country much of the finer furniture work was done by hand, and in his service here he has seen modern machinery lighten and better the work. During his time with the Roper company he has made 175,000 tables, his last being the designing and finishing of eleven new samples this week.

Every man in the factory, from President Roper down to the apprentice boys, is sorry because of Mr.
Hart's intention of quitting the place and he himself, while happy in the knowledge that his allotted time of service is over and glad that he is going "back home" expressed regret that his connection with the company is to cease. It is certain, however, that the best wishes of the entire force will follow the old gentleman, and he will be missed by all in the factory.

Mr. Hart owns extensive real estate interests in South Bend, the result of his industrious and frugal life, and he will be enabled to spend the rest of his life in ease.

CHEAPER TO LIVE TH

WORKERS' WIDOWS PAY $300 TO $400 FOR THE FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 31—If bills paid by the widows of workmen are any criterion, it is cheaper to live than to die. These bills are often brought to the attention of the industrial commission and they vary from $300 to $400. Here is a sample undertaker's bill the commission received today:

Casket	$200
Grave vault	50
Carriages	36
Hearse	8
Burial lot	25
Opening grave	3
Closing grave	3

In this case the widow had to sell the household furniture to pay the bill. Under the industrial commission law, if the employer has to pay for a funeral a maximum of $100 is allowed. This funeral cost the widow $325.

ASKS EUGENIC WEDDING

Governor Tells Church Council He Advocates New Law.

Congregationalists End Meet at Kansas City—Methodist Men Would Suppress Liquor Traffic.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 31—Gov. Simeon E. Baldwin of Connecticut made a plea for eugenic marriages, and Rev. Newell D. Hillis of Brooklyn discussed the new obligations of the church at the close of the council of the Congregational churches here.

Governor Baldwin urged the passage of laws by legislatures to enable clergymen to determine whether parties to a proposed marriage contract are fit before they perform the ceremony. The governor, however, did not believe that in order to prevent marriages of the unfit the church should attempt to influence legislation. He thought that in this respect the Catholic church had the right idea.

"It contents itself mainly with looking after the individual," he said, "and in laying down rules for its own members as to matters of religion; not in trying to get them to work for rules to govern the conduct of others."

Most of the day's session was devoted to the adoption of resolutions and the selection of members of important commissions. Rev. Joel S. Ives of Hartford, Conn., was elected treasurer.

Prof. F. B. F. of Northfield, Minn., was named chairman of the committee on social service; Rev. William T. McElveen, Chicago, was elected chairman of the commission on temperance, and Rev. Henry A. Stimson, New York, was chosen chairman of the commission that will have charge of the ministerial annuity plan.

The council was one of the most important in the church's history. It adopted a new constitution, appointed a general secretary, brought the eight church societies directly under the guidance of the council and provided for biennial meetings.

HILL IN WARNING; CREDIT IS ABUSED

Railway Builder Asserts Country Is Waterlogged With Bonds.

FINANCIAL DISTRESS IS SEEN

Tells Financiers in Chicago That Over-issuance of Securities Is Fiscal Debauch—Not Bounded by Value.

Chicago, Oct. 31—James J. Hill, the dean of the nation's railroad builders, told 90 financiers and men of commerce that "credit had been abused"—that "the country is waterlogged with bonds," and that "if the present abuse of credit continues an abyss of possible suffering and financial distress opens before us."

Mr. Hill delivered his warning in an address at the annual banquet of the Investment Bankers' Association of America at the Congress hotel. At the same gathering Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City bank of New York, desecrating danger from another source, declared that the passage of the Glass-Owen bill in its present form "would start the country on the road to flat money," a possibility, he said, "that contains elements of a national disaster."

It was to forestall such a move, Mr. Vanderlip explained, that he had advocated before the senate committee on banking and currency the establishment of a government managed and publicly owned central bank to issue notes.

Mr. Hill characterized the over-issuance of securities as a financial debauch, but spared the railroads in his arraignment. The liquidating value of railroad property, he asserted, "is so far in excess of its capitalization that the margin of safety is plainly in view." It was on industrial promotions and on the extravagance of states and cities that he laid the burden of his censure.

Formerly, he said, the limit of a bond issue was the value of the property as an asset for immediate conversion by forced sale at any time into cash. In days of soverer financing, an industrial concern was capitalized at somewhere near the actual amount of cash put into the business.

Say Promoter Began It.

Capital stocks, he said, might legitimately to some extent represent good will and earning power, but finding bonds would sell where stocks would not, the promoter began issuing bonds that, so far as security went, were only stocks.

The attitude of the investment bankers toward the Glass-Owen currency bill was treated in a report of the monetary commission, which recommended changes along the lines approved by the American Bankers' association. Salient features of the report were:

Twelve federal reserve banks are too many; the number should be reduced to not more than five.

The proposition that the government should issue the currency of the nation is a violation of a fundamental principle of finance and economy. Any currency issue should be the obligation of the banks.

The provision that notes shall be redeemed in gold or lawful money should be amended by striking out the words "or lawful money."

The amount of reserves held against federal reserve bank notes should be 50 per cent., instead of 33 1/3 per cent.

TROOPS TO QUELL RIOTS

Fear of Outbreaks Leads to Establishment of Camp in Colorado.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 31—Apprehension of outbreaks between striking miners and mine guards, accentuated by an attack upon the strikers' colony at Aguilar, caused Adjutant General Chase, in command of the Colorado National Guard, encamped here, to hold the entire command in the military camp. Frequent trips of investigation were made by troops and a squad of cavalry was ordered, from Walsenburg to Aguilar, where an outbreak appeared probable.

Strikers in the colony there demanded the protection of the state troops after having been deprived of many guns by the infantry company which preserved order in the two mine camps.

Information was received at the Delagua camp that it would be assaulted before morning. The mine guards there deserted the camp, leaving only a few nonunion miners to defend it.

National W. C. T. U. Convention.

Asbury Park, N. J., Oct. 31—The National Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance union opened here today with the annual address of the president, Mrs. Lillian M. L. Stevens of Portland, Me. Among the visitors are many distinguished temperance workers from other lands, who came to attend the world's convention, just held in Brooklyn. Some of them will have places on the program.

Join an athletic club. Get one of the old members, or better still, one of the attendants, to show you where the gymnasium is so that you will not feel embarrassed when visitors to the club ask you to show them around. Step into the cafe and order the waiter to bring you a cylindrical glass receptacle containing any one of a number of liquids which you will find printed on a card which the attendant will hand you. Grasp this receptacle firmly in your right hand and raise it to your lips. The trick is to lift it without spilling a drop and set it down without leaving a drop to spill. Continue this exercise until you are thoroughly exhausted. Then have yourself put into a cab and sent home.—New York World.

Not the Same Japan. Such great changes have come about in Japan since the Emperor Komei was laid away nearly fifty years ago that the recent death of the emperor suddenly called into being practices and customs which the vast majority of the nation had never heard of before, says the Far East. Musty old archives that had lain hidden away for forty-five years were consulted by men little in sympathy with the medieval ceremonies and regulations that they record. The funeral ceremonies were as novel and strange to the Japanese as to the foreigners, and only those skilled in forgotten lore were able to furnish an explanation of the many symbols and ceremonial details.

Water Cress Right at Home.

Do you like water cress? Anybody may grow it right in one's own home and with little trouble. Take a large flower pot and fill it half full of drainage material—sticks, charcoal and the like. Fill the remainder of the pot with soil rich in plant food. Plant your water cress seeds plentifully and keep the soil moist and the flower pot saucer filled with water. As soon as the cress plants start to grow, stop planting, as they will grow quickly, and the more water cress you pick the faster and better the little plants grow.—Suburban Life.

HOW TO TAKE GOOD CARE OF YOUR HAIR

Nothing spoils your good looks so much as homely hair—stringy, dull-colored, harsh. Nothing adds to good looks so much as beautiful hair—soft, silky, wavy and glossy. No matter how beautiful your hair is now, you can improve its good looks by using Harmony Hair Beautifier. If your hair is homely and ugly now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will make it softer, silkier, glossier, more beautiful in every way. It also makes it easier to put up, and helps it to "stay put." Its rich rose odor hides the unpleasant, oily smell of the hair. Harmony Hair Beautifier is rightly named; it beautifies the hair.

Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This is liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet-smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Guiana's Gold.

France possesses in her colony of Guiana, South America, it is claimed, the richest field of placer mining in the world, but through bad laws, lack of police and general mismanagement, serious prospectors have abandoned the work, and now in their stead are about fifteen thousand "marauders," who for the most part have come from the British Antilles. It is estimated that more than 20,000,000 francs of French gold is carried away to enrich Dutch and English Guiana, Trinidad and Saint Lucie. In the last named island it is said that within a few years this gold has made an opulent city called Inini.

K. B. Aid Society.

The K. B. Aid Society was entertained at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Frances Boese Wednesday, Oct. 29. Although the weather was unfavorable, a fairly large crowd attended and a fine time was enjoyed by all. A delicious scramble dinner was enjoyed at noon, after which a business meeting was held. It was opened with a prayer and devotional services led by Mrs. Ella Hintz.

During the meeting one comforter was sold and receipts for the previous meeting were read. The business meeting closed with a selection by Miss Hazel Boese at the piano.

A fine lot of sewing was done for the hostess during which the ladies chatted merrily and the day flew all too quickly. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and foliage and Miss Boese gave several piano selections during the day and all in all it was impossible for the ladies not to enjoy themselves.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Mary Kime on the Franklin Grove road, Wednesday, Nov. 5, for an all day sewing session.

Blasting With water.

A new method of mining is being practiced in German and other coal shafts that is said to do away with dangerous blasting, while also avoiding much of the risk of spontaneous explosion of coal dust. Deep holes are bored in the coal and water is introduced into them by pipes under heavy pressure. The water finds its way through the coal fissures and opens them up until the mass is loosened, when it is readily removed while wet without any dust or the use of any tools other than a light pick and a shovel.—Harper's Weekly.

PUBLIC HIGHWAYS

GOOD COUNTRY ROADS

Narrow-Tired Wagon Is Most Destructive Agent.

Highways Also Have Been Ruined by Wrong Method of Working—Different System of Supervision Is Advocated.

Good country roads are ruined in many ways, some of which must be laid at the doors of the officials in charge, and some we can only hold the farmers themselves responsible for. Good roads are ruined by weather, water and wanton neglect. Man is the chief destructive agent and we must pay some attention to him and his ways, says the Western Farmer. A good dirt road can be ruined in a short time by hauling heavy loads over it in narrow tired wagons. The common one and three-fourth inch tire does more harm to country roads than any other destructive agent. We wonder why the farmers will continue buying these wheels when a broad tire—say four-inch—will make rather than destroy good roads. The broad tired wagon pulls easier and that should be sufficient reason why the change should be made.

It seems a waste of money to make a dirt road hard and smooth, dragged at the proper time and all that, and then have a lot of men haul big loads of grain, hay, wood or what not over it just after a rain and their narrow tires cutting away in. Of course they all keep in the one track so each succeeding tire cuts a little deeper. If another rain comes before the ruts are dragged full then the whole road goes to pieces. There should be a tax or some legal penalty against the narrow tired wagon. We are not pleading for low wheels, though we believe in them, too, but we do urge every one to buy wide tires. The old wheels can be made over and wide tires put on at a slight cost.

Roads have been ruined by the mile by the wrong method of working. The old system of working out the road tax under a supervisor or road boss is wrong. It never yet has made a good stretch of road. It never will. The practice of tearing up the road in the fall after harvest—because that's the only time he can get farmers to work—plowing the sodded sides up and scalping the whole conglomeration of sods, stones and clods into the middle of the road is the worst system that ever can be practiced. The season is wrong, the system is wrong and the road is bad all winter and next spring.

Who has not seen brush piled in soft places, gravel dumped in mud holes, and even sand put in chuck holes by these road bosses? It's a sure way to make a bad road worse. Who has not seen dense groves of tall willows pile the road full of snow which made a mud hole exist there for weeks after the rest of the road was dry? What is the remedy? A different system of road supervision. Remove the office from politics, get men who have studied or will study road building and keep them as long as they are efficient. Pay road tax in cash and let this skilled road boss hire his men. He should keep the same men all the time. They become more efficient all the time.

FOR MORE IMPROVED ROADS

Much Valuable Assistance Rendered by Office of Public Roads—Perishable Products Wasted.

Many of the model highway laws in various states have been prepared under the advice of the road experts of the department of agriculture, and all the data and statistics of the office of public roads are at the disposal of the legislatures.

In the last bulletin of the office of public roads it was stated that at the close of 1909, 8.66 per cent. of the roads in the United States were improved. This represents a gain in the total road mileage improved for the five-year period, 1904-1909, of 1.52 per cent., or, in other words, the percentage of improved roads has increased during this period from 7.14 to 8.66 per cent.

In the three years that have elapsed since then, it is roughly estimated that the percentage of improved roads has gone well beyond 9 per cent, and possibly close to 10 per cent. It is estimated that if 20 per cent. of the public highways were improved—each highway being selected and improved with a view to the proportionate traffic upon it—a high degree of efficiency in highway transportation would be reached. It is figured that millions of dollars would be saved annually in the transportation of crops, the wear and tear on horses and vehicles, and in the minimizing of the waste in truck farming. Where roads are bad, the farmers frequently find it impossible to get their products to the shipping points and thus perishable products are wasted, perceptibly increasing the cost of living.

INDIANIAN CAUSES BIG SENSATION

Congressman Gray Objects to Giving Wedding Present to Miss Jessie Wilson.

DECLARES IT "BAD TASTE"

Denounces His Colleagues, on Floor of House, for Presenting $5 Apiece to the Fund—Dubs It "Unwarranted Assumption."

Washington, Oct. 31.—A commotion was caused in the house when Representative Gray of Indiana denounced his colleagues in that body for presenting $5 apiece to a fund, the purpose of which is to purchase a wedding present for Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the President. Gray declared members were getting "too familiar with the president's family."

"I think this movement is in bad taste, indiscreet and an unwarranted assumption by members of this house," said Gray.

"I do not think we should tender a trinket to this lady. Most of us are strangers to her, and it is bad form for us to intrude."

Offers a Resolution Instead.

Gray further suggested that the house might take official action in the matter by passing the following resolution congratulating Miss Wilson:

"Whereas, The marriage of the president's daughter, Miss Jessie Wilson, has been announced to be celebrated in the people's mansion, the White House, at an early date, therefore, be it

"Resolved, That the members of the house of representatives extend to Miss Wilson on approaching this great step in life's history their heartiest congratulations and well wishes as a symbol of the solicitude of this great nation for the happiness and welfare of all our people."

No action was taken on the resolution.

Asks Mann to Explain Action.

Gray asserted he had contributed his $5 with the understanding that it should be devoted to a charitable purpose, and then added that Republican Leader James R. Mann was responsible for the scheme to give Miss Wilson a wedding present.

"I want him to tell us why he did it," said Mr. Gray. "Let him speak, not as a Republican, but from the standpoint of Jacksonian economy and Jeffersonian simplicity, let him say why we should do such a thing."

Mann made this reply: "After hearing the gentleman from Indiana, I think it would be hopeless to try to put into his soul the expression which finds itself in the heart of every other member of the house. Other members do not need to be told why."

OWEN HAS NEW BILL

Prepares Currency Measure Which Marks Concessions.

Senate Committee Discusses Number of Branch Institutions, Failing to Decide.

Washington, Oct. 31.—A new currency bill embodying many of the concessions desired by the banking interests of the country has been prepared by Senator Owen, chairman of the senate banking and currency committee. He will endeavor to have it substituted in whole or in part for the pending measure.

The basis of the Owen bill is the measure as it passed the house. In this the senator has made nearly 300 changes which he is asking his committee to approve as the consideration of the bill proceeds. Some of them have been adopted already.

Washington, Oct. 31.—The proposed government controlled central bank plan prevented progress in the senate banking and currency committee's consideration of the administration currency bill again. Members of the committee said a decision was expected this week.

Senator Owen, leading the administration adherents on the committee, had conferred with Secretary McAdoo and proposed that the number be reduced from twelve to ten. This was accepted as the extent to which President Wilson is willing to go in his concession as to reduction in the number.

Senator Nelson, from the Republican side, proposed in a resolution that the number be fixed at four. Senator O'Gorman, Democrat, proposed five, and after a long argument it was agreed to vote on a resolution fixing the number at four. Before the vote could be taken, however, a proposition by Senator Reed, one of the six Democrats who have supported the administration proposals in the committee meetings, brought the committee back to its original ground of disagreement, the proposed central bank, on which the members have been equally divided. If the central bank advocates join with Senator Reed, his policy will then be supported by a majority of the committee.

It was proposed that regional reserve branches be established in each of the forty-seven reserve cities throughout the country, with as extensive powers as possible. These banks would be supervised by the federal reserve board, which would locate a regional bank in Washington to act as a clearing-house, reserve center and a bank of issue for all of the regional banks. The administration supporters declared that this was but a disguised central bank scheme. The argument continued until the committee adjourned.

BISHOP MULDOON ISSUES

A DANGER WARNING

To induce the immigrants from rural sections of Europe to settle on farms instead of glutting the cities of America, was the recommendation urged at the Catholic Missionary congress at Boston by the Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, bishop of Rockford. Bishop Muldoon's address was an interesting and valuable summary of the immigrant question from the Catholic standpoint. He said:

"There is no doubt that there is great danger to the immigrant in our large cities but the report of the immigration commissioner shows the housing conditions, the working conditions and the general social conditions are far worse in our small and medium sized cities. Therefore we should use every possible means to place the immigrant where fitted upon the land.

"Everyone will admit that the immigrant in general and especially those who have been farmers in Europe, would be far better off if they could be induced to leave the city."

A. B. McCrea was a business visitor here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morrissey, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Blackburn and daughter Gertrude and Reginald Green of Harmon and Walton, motored to West Brooklyn Sunday and were guests of W. J. Long and Oliver Gehant and their families.

One of our exchanges prints an article by J. G. Price which perhaps is of sufficient importance to our readers to reproduce inasmuch as everyone is having so trouble with their hogs. The article is Hog Cholera Cure and is as follows: I notice in the issue of Aug. 15th of the Iowa Homestead a great deal of talk about hog cholera. I will give a remedy for that disease which I think will kill the germ of all diseases. I have used this remedy for 20 years and have never had a sick hog from any disease while the country and my neighbors have lost them by the hundreds. Mine have been put in the same pen where hogs had sickened and died, yet my hogs have never had the slightest symptoms of sickness or disease. My remedy consists of the following: To each hog give one tablespoonful of the fluid extract of pokeroor once or twice each week in slop. Twice a week is best where the disease is raging. Five or six doses to each hog is sufficient. This was my mother's remedy sixty years ago.

Alex Gehant expects to move into his new home on his own farm within the next few weeks. His place on his father's farm will be taken by George Hahn who has rented the place for the coming year.

The firemen are busy making preparations for their annual Thanksgiving ball in the opera house. Prepare to attend and you will be assured a genuine good time. The firemen are royal entertainers and every one knows this, so a good attendance is certain at the outset.

The celebrated goose-neck for the city water works at the Farmers Elevator is finally in place. It was put in on Wednesday morning. Now the only thing to do is to get the electric motor and the jack to pumping water. At this writing a gang of men are attempting to have these machines do their part but they are trying to do it too quick and the authorities are afraid they will run out of wind and break down. The jack pumps fifty strokes a minute and this is overdoing it as it isn't supposed to pump nearly so fast. Fearing a break down they will delay the supplying of water for a few days more in order to get another pulley for the jack, in case they cannot get the present one to work slower. At any rate there is good prospect of getting water very soon and there is much satisfaction in that. Heretofore it was doubtful whether or not any attempts were being made to get water. Here's hoping every thing works all o. k., and we hear no more about the scarcity of water in West Brooklyn.

Have your public sale bills printed at the Dixon Telegraph office, Dixon.

William Chaon was a caller at our office Tuesday. He is able to be out again after his accident last week, while unloading corn at the Henry Glaser home. He does not know how he was hurt but has come to the conclusion that a bolt must have come loose in the machinery and was thrown against his head with such force that it threw him into the elevator and inflicted the wounds, one in the back of the head and the other across his face. Dr. Chandler found it necessary to use stitches in mending the injuries and this alone will give our readers an idea of how severely William was hurt. The cuts are to the bone and both in dangerous places which moved a little, might have killed him instantly. No one was there to witness the accident and thus it will always remain a mystery as to its cause. At any rate we trust Mr. Chaon will continue to recover as he has started and will be all o. k. again soon. He carries an accident policy in the U. S. Health & Accident Insurance Co., (Henry F. Gehant Banking Company, agents) and will be paid for the time he is laid up and cannot work.

Joseph P. Sondgeroth was in town on business Tuesday.

H. A. Bernardin and family motored to Sterling Sunday in their auto. The weather made the return trip difficult and it was late in the evening when they reached West Brooklyn. Their daughter Kathryn remained in Sterling and returned home the next day on the train.

LOST. Hand bag containing pocket book with money and other valuables. Finder please leave at the bank in West Brooklyn and receive suitable reward. Mrs. Joseph E. Vincent.

George Fassig was in town on business Wednesday.

I have some choice Burbon Red turkeys for sale, which will be just the sort to head your flocks for next year. Let me hear from you at once as my stock is limited and may be sold early. Mrs. Andrew Gehant.

John Sorrenson was in on business Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bushbaum returned to their home in Chicago Monday after visiting relatives and friends here.

The plasterers finished their work at the F. D. Gehant residence Wednesday and just as soon as it is dried sufficiently the carpenters will proceed to finish their work.

John Haub was here on business Monday.

Moving will be the order of the day the last of the week. W. U. Biggart will move from the house he has been occupying all year to the farm home west of town which he has rented for the coming year. A. F. Jeanguenat will move to the place vacated by Mr. Biggart while Izedore Gehant will move into the house made vacant by M. Jeanguenat's removal. Izedore Gehant and wife have been living with the latter's parents near Steward since last spring and we are all glad to welcome them to our city where they have purchased and will make their future home.

"For a long time," said the servant to her mistress, "I have wanted to ask those black faces are in the picture over the writing table." "Those are silhouettes," explained the mistress. "They are the grandparents of my husband, and the little girl is his mother as a child." "Yes, but the thing that seems so strange to me is that your husband is white, while his ancestors were blacks."

Remedy for Damp Walls.
Boil two quarts of tar with two ounces clean (kitchen) grease in an iron saucepan of convenient size, for a quarter of an hour. To this mixture add some slaked lime and very finely pounded glass which has been previously put through a hair-sieve. Two parts lime to one of glass and worked to the thickness of a thin plaster. Use as soon as made as it soon becomes hard. One coat an inch thick will generally answer the purpose, but if wall is very damp, two coats may be applied. Paint over the cement or plaster and, if wanted, it may be papered as any ordinary wall.

Cynical Aphorism.
Brand Whitlock, reform mayor of Toledo, brilliant novelist and successful lawyer, was condemning the corrupt practices by which a certain Ohio millionaire had made his millions. "When I think of men like this," he said, rather bitterly, "I feel like venting an aphorism, a cynical aphorism, namely: 'The richer a man is, the less he is worth.'"

Car Lines Designated by Numbers.
A consular report from Amsterdam states that in that city the convenient plan has been adopted of giving each car line a number instead of a name. This number is suspended between the arms of the trolley pole on each car and is visible several hundred yards away. The numbers are always referred to in directing inquiries. Most German cities have a similar system, which works very successfully.

Where Moses Studied.
The necropolis of Heliopolis, the intellectual center of Egypt for more than four thousand years, has been discovered by Daninos Pasha. Heliopolis also is known as the town where Moses received the sacerdotal and military training which preceded his leadership of the Israelites in their journey out of Egypt. The necropolis is situated in the desert a little more than three miles to the east of the Matarieh obelisk. There are many burial pits cut out of the rock in the last spurs of the Arabian range. Those which have been excavated by Daninos Pasha were from 65 to 229 feet deep. They were filled to the top with sand and contained embalmed human bodies and the skeletons of sacred animals and birds. Undamaged ibis eggs were found.

Fillbuster.
"What did George say when you refused him?" "He wildly declared he would go right down to one of those Central American states, start an uprising and horify the world. Then he rushed from the house." "Did the name of the Central American state sound like ratskeller?" "I'm not sure." "Well there's where he went. And he started the uprising by breaking two mirrors, tipping over the bar and flooring the proprietor with a Louis XIV. table leg. Whereupon the waiter horrified the world by picking him up and dropping him on a passing ash cart." —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Widow 92 Years.
The Countess of Desmond's widowhood of 70 years does not top the record. Agnes Skinner, who died in 1409 at the age of one hundred and nineteen, is said to have survived her first and only husband 92 years. A better authenticated instance of lengthy widowhood is that of Jean, Countess of Roxburgh, who died in 1753, at the comparatively juvenile age of ninety-six. She had been a widow for 71 years, her husband, the third Earl of Roxburgh, having been lost in the Gloucester frigate, which was wrecked in 1682.—London Chronicle.

Doctor of Agriculture.
The time is coming when every rural community of sufficient size will have one or more agricultural experts—men professionally trained to serve in an advisory way all the farmers of the community for a fee, says World's Work. These men will understand the chemistry of the soil and of plant growth; their laboratories will be busy with soil analysis and the study of local plant diseases; they will be entomologists and bacteriologists; and their value will be obvious to the enlightened farmers of a new age. These farmers, no longer content to depend on the free clinic of the state experiment station, will seek the advice and prescription of the local doctor of agriculture. The dignity and the rewards of the profession are bound to increase, for it is founded upon the basis of our greatest industry.

Indications are that earrings are coming into fashion again—not the diamond earrings which never go out of fashion—but earrings that are fashioned from all kinds of material lustrous and metallic. They will for the most part be pendants and ardent lovers in attempting to seize a kiss from the coy maid or widow will find out how they may be hung up in a coil of tangled hair.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

SOME PEOPLE WE KNOW, AND WE WILL PROFIT BY HEARING ABOUT THEM

This is purely a local event. It took place in Dixon. Not in some faraway place. You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word. To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at Home is more worthy of confidence than one you know nothing about. Endorsed by unknown people. Julius Gottlieb, merchant, 418 W. First St., Dixon, Ill., says: "My back had been causing me trouble. Often it was so lame and sore that it was hard to bend over. The kidney action was irregular and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a supply at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store. They did such good work that I recommended them. I am glad to do so again." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Economizing Electricity.

According to the Scientific American of recent issue, a method of economizing electrical energy employed for domestic heating or cooking is to receive the energy continuously at a low rate in a resistance apparatus which transforms it into heat and then stores the heat for use as needed. In a new electrical cooking apparatus operating in this way the heating unit, consuming 500 watts total, or 12,000 watt-hours per day of 24 hours, serves to keep a mass of cast iron hot enough to cook food in ordinary utensils placed in contact with it. The cast iron block is thermally insulated by being enclosed in a surrounding wall of lampblack or powdered silica, and a movable block is arranged to be raised above the main mass, so as to expose its upper surface when cooking is to be done. The small current consumption, less than that of an electrical flat-iron, enables the device to be operated on the ordinary electric light wiring of the house.

Was Polyphemus a Gorilla?

A German savant has offered a theory interesting to readers of the "Odyssey." He suggests that the one-eyed giant whom Ulysses blinded in his cave on the slopes of Mount Etna was in reality a gorilla. The German contends that the original of Homer's story was a reminiscence of an actual encounter between early civilized men and one of their monstrous prehuman ancestors. This theory is in opposition to that of Grimm, who held that the story of Polyphemus is a mythic account of the strife of the elements. It has been pointed out that the fact that gorillas do not now exist near the Mediterranean is not in conflict with the German's argument, since it is well known that in prehistoric times Europe contained many animals that at present are peculiar to Africa and other distant lands.

Zodiacal Light.

There is a strange light in the heavens appearing after sunset in the late winter and in spring and before sunrise in the autumn, but few persons in our latitudes have ever seen it. In the equatorial regions, however, and in certain parts of the tropics the zodiacal light appears with great splendor, and some remarkable views of it were obtained by a French expedition to the interior of the Sahara, undertaken for the purpose of studying the effects of the unclouded sun on the dry air of the desert. The mysterious light, in the form of a vast triangle, rising high in the heavens, appeared nearly three times as bright as the Milky Way. Science has not entirely solved the problem of the origin of this light but it is thought that it is an appendage of the sun.—Harper's Weekly.

Panoramas.

The panoramas of the Battle of Gettysburg was not the first thing of the kind ever known. The panorama was invented by one Robert Barker of Scotland as far back as 1786. In 1781 Barker exhibited at Edinburgh a view of that city painted round the walls of a circular building, the first picture of its kind ever seen. He then commenced similar exhibitions in London, having adopted the name "panorama." He later on built commodious quarters in Leicester square for his exhibitions. Barker died in 1806, leaving his well-nigh perfected art to be continued by others.

Only Truth Abides.

Was it not ordained of old that truth only shall abide forever. What ever we may say today, or whatever we may write in our books, the stern tribunal of history will review it all detect falsehood, and bring us to judgment before that posterity which shall bless or curse us as we may act now, wisely or otherwise. We may hide in the grave which waits us all—in vain! We may hope to be concealed there, like the foolish bird that hides its head in the sand, in the vain belief that its body is not seen; yet, even there, the quick coming future will decide that it was a hypocritical pretense, under which we sought to conceal the avarice which prompted us to covet and to seize, by force, that which was not ours.—Thomas Corwin.

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD.

The bread of the Romans was Whole Wheat Bread, that was centuries before millers, in order to make flour white, began robbing it of the outer shell of the wheat containing the vital mineral phosphates. Whole Wheat Bread comes from our oven baked through and through, crisp and sweet. Try a nice 10 cent loaf. Baked Tuesday and Friday of each week at Belier's Steam Bakery. 573

Innocence of Kittens.

An English naturalist has raised the question whether kittens are born with a propensity to eat mice. Three Manx kittens kept in a cage for six weeks with a mouse, which was introduced when they were five months old, made no attempt to injure it, although they were hungry, until the mother cat was introduced and showed how mice should be treated. More than one observer has noted the indisposition of kittens to attack mice, but the question whether mouse-killing is instinctive or educational with them can hardly be said to have been settled.

Be Serene If You Would Be Happy.

Don't go to sleep with a frown on your brow. A drawn down mouth and screwed up eyes help to bring wrinkles. But really one needs to think pleasant thoughts in the daytime. Pleasant thoughts bring a serene expression to the face, which, as the years go on, becomes permanent. The people you meet who have pleasant faces are the ones who have never allowed hard or unkind, discontented thoughts to find a resting place in their minds, and there is urgent necessity for cultivating serenity to fall asleep with.

Announcing Extras With Steam Siren.

La Prensa, the leading newspaper of Buenos Ayres, has a novel and enterprising way of announcing its "extras" to the city. On the roof of its building is a large steam siren, and whenever a startling piece of news is received at the office a blast is blown. The noise can be heard for twenty miles, and because it constitutes a disturbance of the peace the city authorities impose a fine of $1,000 for each blast. The paper, however, continues to announce its extras in this archaic manner.

Oysters are now caught by steamers, power boats and fast sailing vessels, delivered promptly at the shipping houses. They are thus not subject to the delays formerly experienced. They are kept cold by artificial refrigeration and by pure artificial ice. Oysters, either in shell or opened, are now shipped from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific, arriving there in as perfect condition as when taken from the water. There is no place in the United States or British America where the railroads penetrate in which oysters cannot be received in perfect condition.

A quart of bulk Oysters weighs two pounds at 40c per quart equals 20c per pound and no waste. They are not a luxury. They are a cheap meat.
